By enrolling in the course, making payment, and/or attending any session, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agree to be legally bound by the following terms and conditions.

1. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY & VIDEO DISTRIBUTION

All course materials, lesson content, worksheets, slides, documents, recordings, and any other educational resources provided through the course are the exclusive intellectual property of the host. Students are granted a limited, non-transferable, non-exclusive license to access and use the course materials solely for their personal educational purposes.

Students are strictly prohibited from performing the following actions under any circumstances:

- Downloading video recordings from the provided platform.
- Recording, capturing, photographing, copying, duplicating, or reproducing any live session or recording.
- Sharing course materials or access links with any third party.
- Uploading recordings or materials to websites, cloud services, social media platforms, forums, file-sharing services, or AI training systems.

- Selling, redistributing, sublicensing, or commercially exploiting any course content.

Any unauthorized downloading, recording, distribution, reproduction, or sharing of course content will result in immediate termination of course access without refund, and may subject the violating party to legal action, including claims for statutory damages, injunctive relief, attorneys' fees, and any other remedies available under applicable law.

2. ACCESS & GOOGLE ACCOUNT MANAGEMENT

Access to live sessions and shared course recordings is restricted exclusively to the specific Google Account email address provided by the student during registration. Students are solely responsible for maintaining the security and access of their registered Google Account.

Students may not:

- Share live session access links with any non-registered person.
- Share access credentials or shared storage folders with others.
- Permit another individual to attend any session using their registration.

Any attempt to share access credentials, transfer seats, or circumvent access restrictions will result in immediate suspension or permanent removal from the course without a refund.

3. STRICT NO-REFUND POLICY

Because course enrollment capacity is strictly limited and a specific seat is reserved immediately upon registration, all payments are final and non-refundable.

No refunds, credits, scheduling transfers, or partial reimbursements will be provided under any circumstances, including but not limited to:

- Cancellation by the student before the course begins.
- Failure to attend one or more live sessions.

- Scheduling conflicts or personal time constraints.
- Sudden changes in travel plans.
- Personal, financial, or family circumstances.
- Technical difficulties or internet outages on the student's side.

By completing the payment via the host's designated payment methods, the student expressly acknowledges, understands, and agrees to this strict no-refund policy.

4. CODE OF CONDUCT & DISMISSAL

All participants are required to contribute to a respectful, professional, and supportive learning environment. The following conduct is strictly prohibited:

- Harassment, intimidation, or bullying of the instructor or other students.
- Disruptive behavior or intentionally impeding instruction during live sessions.
- Use of abusive, threatening, obscene, or offensive language.
- Discriminatory, xenophobic, or hateful speech of any kind.
- Repeated, unauthorized interruptions that interfere with the class flow.

The instructor reserves the sole and absolute discretion to immediately remove, suspend, or permanently ban any participant who violates these conduct standards. Dismissal for misconduct shall not entitle the participant to any refund, compensation, or credit.

5. DISCLAIMERS & LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

The course is an educational program designed to provide practical communication strategies and confidence-building tools for travel in Japan. The course does not guarantee:

- Absolute Japanese language fluency or specific proficiency outcomes.
- Successful interactions or perfect outcomes in every real-world situation.

- Complete elimination of all travel difficulties, errors, or misunderstandings in Japan.

Students acknowledge that travel circumstances vary, and real-world results depend entirely on individual effort and external conditions.

The instructor shall not be liable for any indirect, incidental, consequential, special, or punitive damages arising from participation in this course. Furthermore, the instructor is not responsible for internet outages, device failures, software issues, platform service interruptions, or any other student-side technical problems that prevent attendance. In all circumstances, the instructor's maximum liability shall not exceed the actual amount paid by the student for the course.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT & AGREEMENT

By completing the registration and making payment for the course, the student expressly acknowledges that they have read, understood, and agree to be legally bound by all the terms and conditions outlined in this Student Agreement.
